Numb. 7478.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday February 3. to Saturday February 7. 1735.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th Day of February, 1735.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, in Council.

His Majeſty in Council was this Day pleaſed to appoint the following Sheriffs, viz.

Hereford, William Phillips of Newton, Eſq;
Nottingham, William Burnell of Winckborne, Eſq;
Stafford, Ralph Adderley, Eſq;
Suſſex, Henry Lintot, Eſq;

Warſaw, Feb. 1, N. S. The Palatin of Lublin having, a few Days ago, ſent to deſire a Paſſport for his repairing ſafely hither, it was preſently diſpatched to him by a Meſſenger, ſo that he is daily expected. The Departure of the Prince of Heſſe Hombourg with the Ruſſian Troops, is deferred till the 6th Inſtant. The Staroſta Belski, who was of King Staniſlaus's Party, and one of thoſe who retired into Turkey, arrived here ſome Days ago, and appears to be very zealous for King Auguſtus. This Day being the Anniverſary of the Death of the late King Auguſtus, it was obſerved here with great Solemnity.

Vienna, Feb. 3, N. S. Yeſterday the Duke of Lorrain demanded in Perſon of the Emperour and Empreſs, the Archdutcheſs Maria Thereſa in Marriage, which was granted by their Imperial Majeſties in the moſt gracious Manner, and with Expreſſions of high Eſteem for him: Then his Royal Highneſs waited on the Archdutcheſs his future Conſort, and afterwards went to the Apartment of the Empreſs Dowager Amelia, to make the proper Compliments to her: On this Occaſion there was a very numerous and ſplendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction of both Sexes: And the Imperial Family dined in Publick with the Duke of Lorrain and Prince Charles his Brother. It is adviſed from Italy, that upon Aſſurances given by the Duke de Montemar, that the Court of Madrid will acquieſce with the Preliminaries of Peace, the Count de Kevenhuller had nominated the Generals Watchtendonck, Brown, and Brettwitz, to be Imperial Commiſſioners, to ſettle with thoſe of Spain the Terms of a Prolongation of the Suſpenſion of Arms.

Berlin, Feb. 4, N. S. A Marriage is agreed between the Princeſs Ulrica, their Pruſſian Majeſties Fifth Daughter, and Margrave Charles, eldeſt Son of the late Margrave Albert, and Preparations are making for the Ceremony of their Betrothing. The King of Pruſſia went Yeſterday to Potzdam, as did this Afternoon the Queen of Pruſſia with the Royal Family, which uſually accompanies her on theſe Journeys.

Hague, Feb. 14, N. S. The Emperor's Miniſter Count Uhlefeld treated at Dinner Yeſterday with great Magnificence ſeveral of the chief Perſons in the Regency of this State, and Foreign Miniſters, on Occaſion of the Marriage of the Duke of Lorrain with the Archdutcheſs their Imperial Majeſties eldeſt Daughter: To Day the French Ambaſſadour, and the Saxon Miniſter, have ſeverally treated at Dinner a good Number of Perſons of Diſtinction of both Sexes, on the ſame Occaſion; and to Night Count Uhlefeld gives a Ball. Count Staremberg, Son of the Count of that Name who ſome time ago was the Emperor's Miniſter at the Court of Great Britain, and a young Bavarian Count, are arrived here, deſigning to go over to England.

Whitehall, February 7.

On Saturday laſt His Majeſty was pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Robert Cowan, Eſq;

Whitehall, Feb. 6, 1735-6.

Whereas Edward Pontifex, of Downley, in the Pariſh of Weſtwycombe, in the County of Bucks, Yeoman, was, on Friday the 23d of January laſt, in his Return from Chipping Wycombe Market, between the Hours of Eleven and Twelve at Night, ſhot dead, and robbed of about Seven Pounds Fifteen Shillings in Money, and his Watch: His Majeſty, for the better Diſcovery of the Perſons concerned in this Murder and Robbery, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Perſon that ſhot the ſaid Edward Pontifex) who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a further Encouragement, his Majeſty is alſo pleaſed to promiſe a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid; to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Welch Copper Office, Philpot-Lane, Feb. 6, 1735.

This is to give Notice, that a General Court of the Governor and Company of Copper Miners in the Principality of Wales, will be held at their Houſe in Philpot-Lane, on Wedneſday the 18th Inſtant, between the Hours of Eleven and One, for electing a Governor for the remaining Part of this preſent Year.
